THE HINDSONIAN

"A picture is worth a thousand words" which captures all of our actions to remind us of what we were, what we did and how we enjoyed it!

PRINCIPAL

MR. ARTHUR DAMPIER

SPECIAL SALUTE

Because of his perpetual love for music and his intense desire to see those students with great musical inclination reach the peak of their potential, we “take off our hats” to this man of uncomparable qualities. He is a gentleman who has not only been employed here for more than two decades, but has given many the base for a very profitable career in the music field. His character has made him well-known and respected by individuals throughout the United States. He instills in his pupils the will to accept nothing less than perfection in their performances.

Throughout his teaching career, he has touched many lives and steered many individuals in the right direction. He and his marching bands have participated in parades galore while his concert and swing bands have titillated audiences for years. He has great rapport with his students and is genuinely concerned about all with whom he has contact. For these reasons and many more, the Hindsonian proudly salutes MR. LOUIS EDWARD LEON LEE, a man among men.

As fate has it, you always look back on the past and reminisce from time to time. How well you remember "You people move on out of the halls now"; "Hand in your assignment"; "Gimme your fries"; "AIASA—the Number One Chapter"; "Who is that talking about beating those Bulldogs?"; "I have an appointment to see the nurse"; "Hey! Bo Diddle!" "Please disregard the bell"; "Tweet!" from Mr. Lee's whistle. You can see yourself sitting next to your best friend in your favorite teacher's classroom, pondering what the next assignment will be, knowing that whatever it is, it will be meaningful and you will get it done.

How well you remember those routine encounters—fried chicken on Wednesdays, JROTC cadets in uniform on Thursdays, drill teams practicing in the streets, drummers practicing at the second period, class meetings, club meetings, assemblies, social activities, lunch period, daily class work, concerned teachers and staff members, chatting with friends, making new friends, and making impressions on students, faculty, and friends.

Even though your encounters seem trivial and your accomplishments few, you get joy and pride from hearing others say "YOU DID IT!"

Jennifer Turner does what she loves best.

Mr. Lee and his group provide live entertainment during an assembly program.

The Student Body takes an oath to help the Student Council have a good year.

Principal Dampier gives words of wisdom to the student body.

THE ROYAL CHOICE

MR. & MISS HINDS

Mr. & Miss Hinds are Tyrone Allen and Romunda Battle. Tyrone is a native of Edwards who enjoys dancing, skating, reading, meeting new young ladies, and playing tennis. His future plans are to attend Alcorn State University and become a gynecologist. Romunda lives in Jackson. Her hobbies are cooking, reading, dancing, and biking. She plans to attend Xavier University and major in pre-medicine.

The three runners-up to Miss Hinds AHS are Valerie Evans, third runner-up; Tammy Harris, first runner-up; and Renee Thomas, second runner-up. Valerie, a native of Bolton, enjoys dancing, singing, talking, and living her life the way SHE wants it to be lived. Tammy lives in Edwards. She enjoys babysitting, reading romance novels and socializing. Her plans are to attend Xavier University with a major in pre-medicine. Her ambition is to become a pediatrician. Renee, also of Edwards, enjoys dancing, singing and getting her point across. She plans to attend Jackson State University and major in mass communication. All three young ladies anticipate bright, rewarding futures.

Loosen up, Romunda!

Don't laugh, Tyrone.

Erica Stokes carries the Queens' robes.

Sharon, Tammy and Lisa aren't nervous!

The Mr/Miss Hinds contestants await their questions from the former Mr/Miss Hinds.

Renee Thomas models her church wear.

Valerie Evans sings "You Light Up My Life."

Romunda Battle dances to

Tyrone and Romunda stun the audience with their formal wear.

Tammy Harris recites "It Couldn't Be Done."

Michael Jackson's "Beat It."

Tyrone Allen does a creative dance.

GIFTED/TALENTED STUDENTS

The Gifted/Talented Program consists of twenty-two students who have shown promise in one or more of the eleven areas it provides. As a result of tests, the participants are placed in either typing, media technology, computer science, music, audio visual technology, art, algebra, architecture, world history, drafting, or auto body repair. They study the methodology of these areas and make actual applications of what they are taught. The program is coordinated by Mrs. Veronica Dampier.

G/T students find it enjoyable to actually apply themselves to those fields in which they have interests. They are fortunate to participate in learning experiences beyond the daily classroom activities.

Organizations

Our school takes pride in the variety of organizations it provides to accommodate the diversity of interests exemplified among its students. Club membership affords each individual an opportunity to become involved in some activity which enhances his being sociably adjusted to today's society. Each student has a minimum requirement of being affiliated with two clubs.

MIGHTY BULLDOGS

BAND DIRECTOR HONORED

Mr. Lee proudly displays the birthday cake which was donated to him by his band students on his birthday which was celebrated in the bandroom.

Janice Funches and Cheryl Weeden serve as hostesses as Mr. Lee looks on.

WE DID IT!

The happy faces exemplify the joys of the band members who participated in the birthday celebration for Mr. Lee. Each of these students helped to make this one of the most fantastic surprises of Mr. Lee's teaching career.

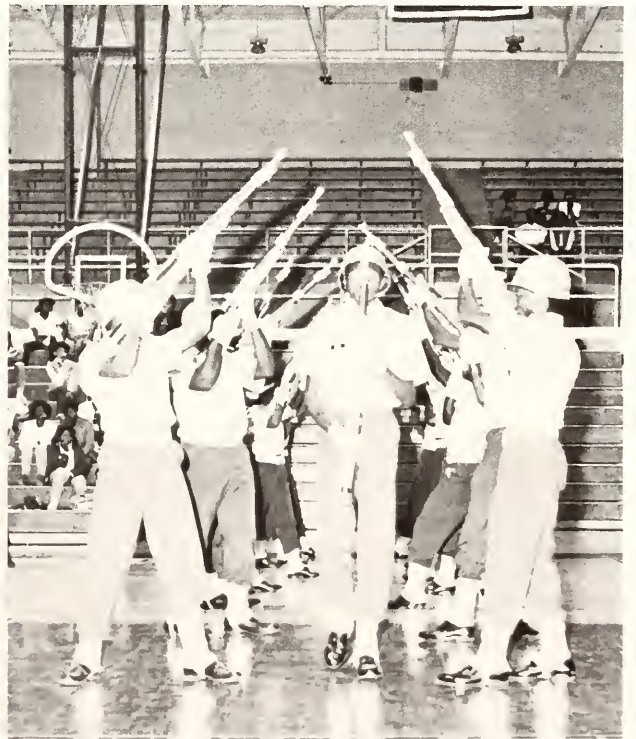

MEET JROTC

JROTC Cadets march in formation to the gymnasium for their installation ceremonies.

Daryell Hood leads the Drill Team in performing during the assembly program.

The Mixed Drill Team shows off one of its new routines.

Athletics

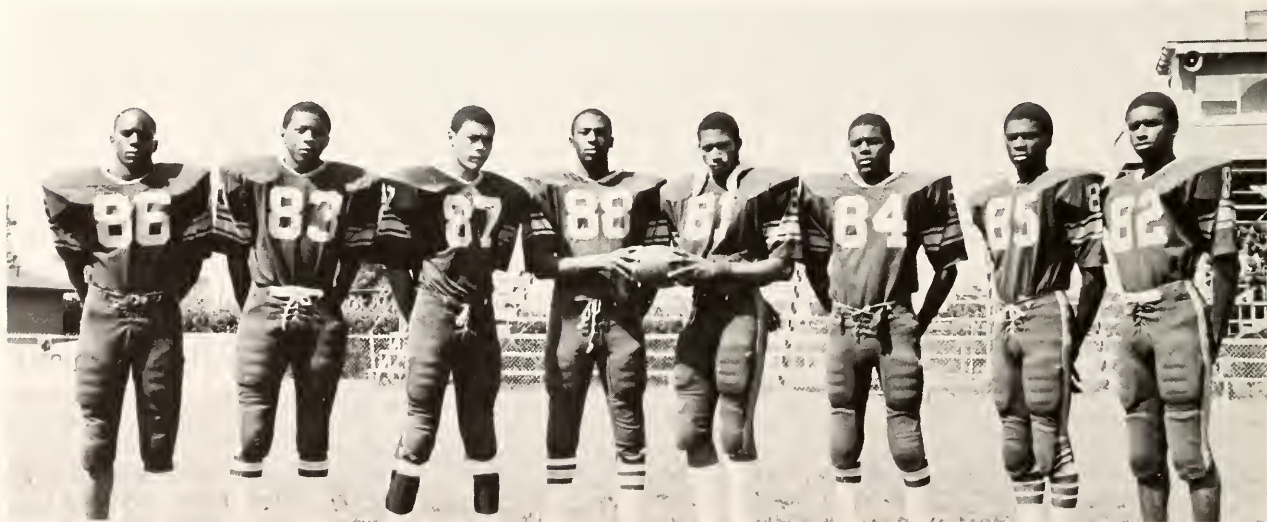

The Hinds Bulldogs had both good and bad moments during the '83 season—more good than bad however. In spite of a few unfortunate games, they proudly shared the conference championship. They worked hard and played diligently to make this a banner year. These efforts did not go unrewarded because several of the players were chosen for the All-Conference team.

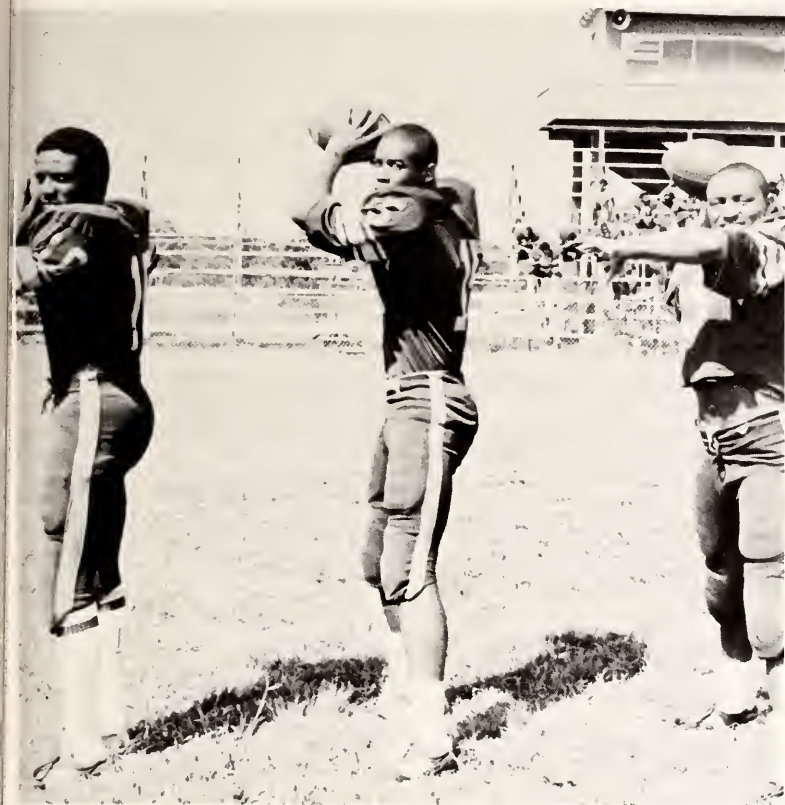

Line men—Front row: K. Wilkerson, K. Brookshire, M. Haggard, L. Rolling, S. Mack, R. Tots, S. Brown. Back Row: M. Harris, E. Lewis, F. Hampton, R. Brister, L. Shelby, S. McDougal, M. Gines.

Backs—Kneeling: A. Bingham, K. Lewis, K. Frazier, N. Watson, M. Sorrell, E. West, J.D. Henderson. Standing: M. Bracey, E. Christmas, R. Richardson, K. Harris, P. Cheatham, T. Crump, E. Harris.

Ends—J. McPherson, J. Shelby, R. Mack, S. Newton, W. Green, C. Hodge, K. Bracey, F. Butler.

Quarterbacks—R. Richardson, K. Harris, P. Cheatham.

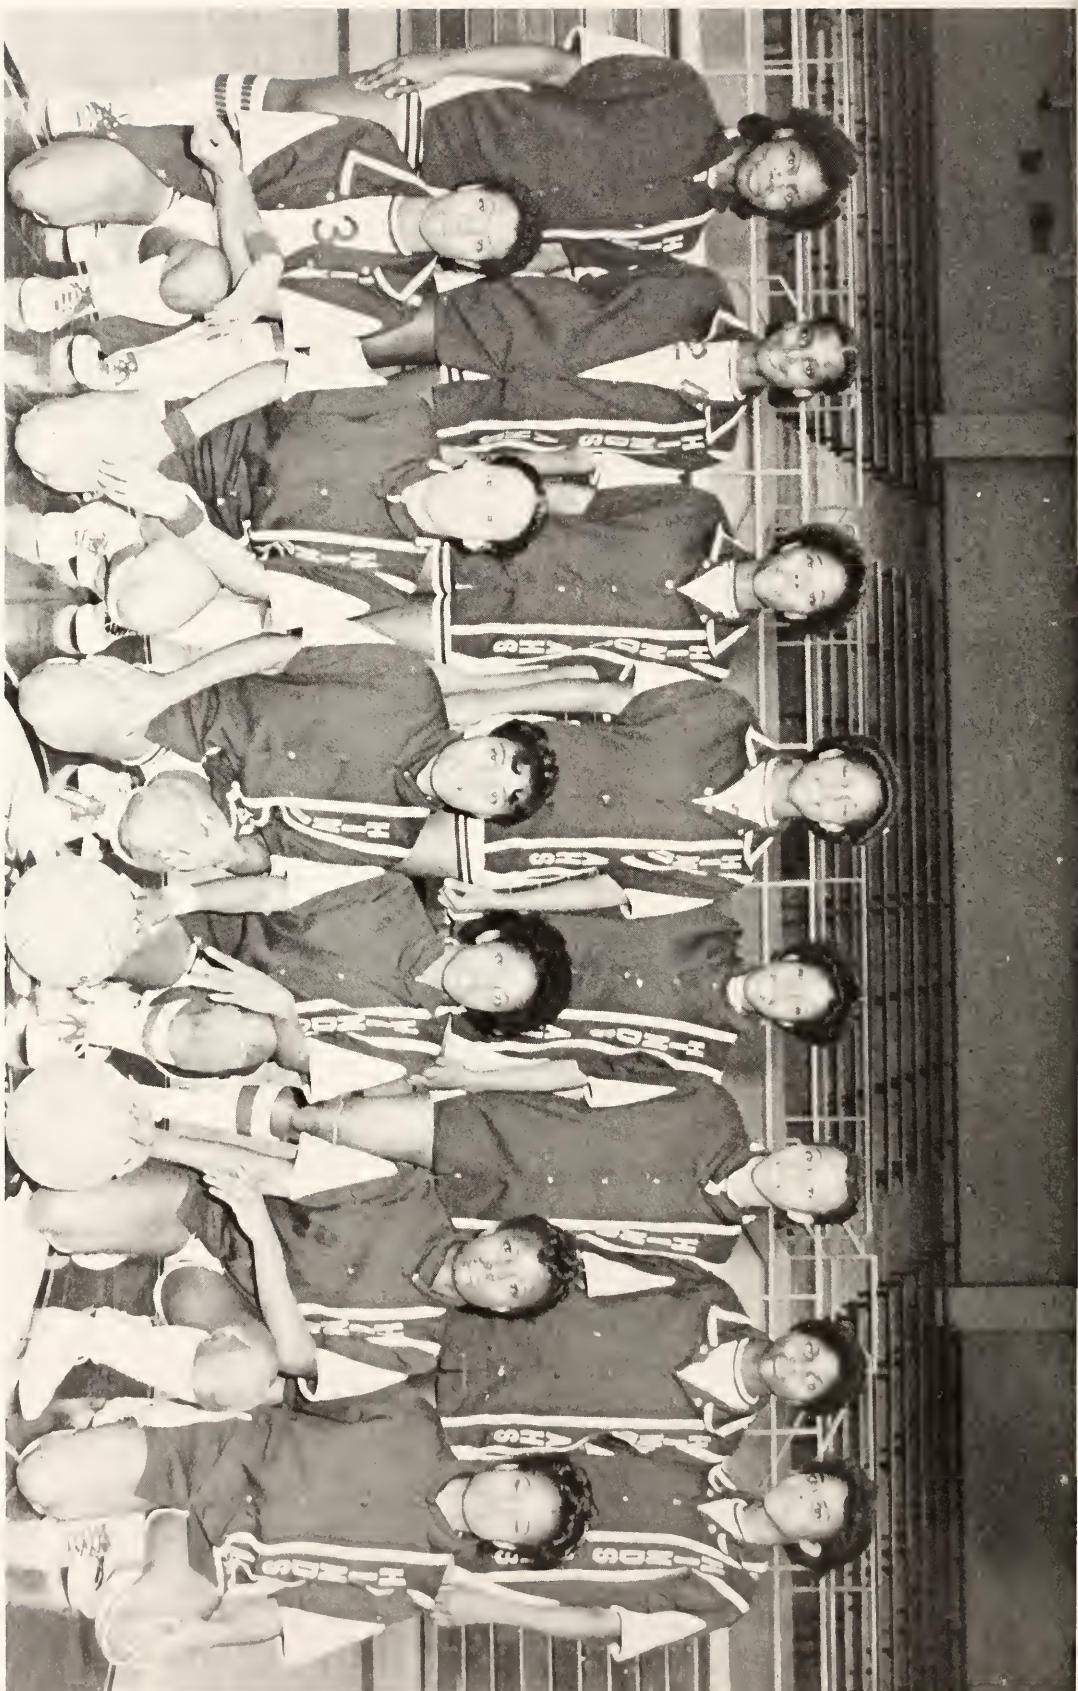

Sorrell drives through the line well-protected.

White shirts are all over the field. Are there any other 'Dogs in this game?

Coach Strong shouts instructions to the team from the sideline.

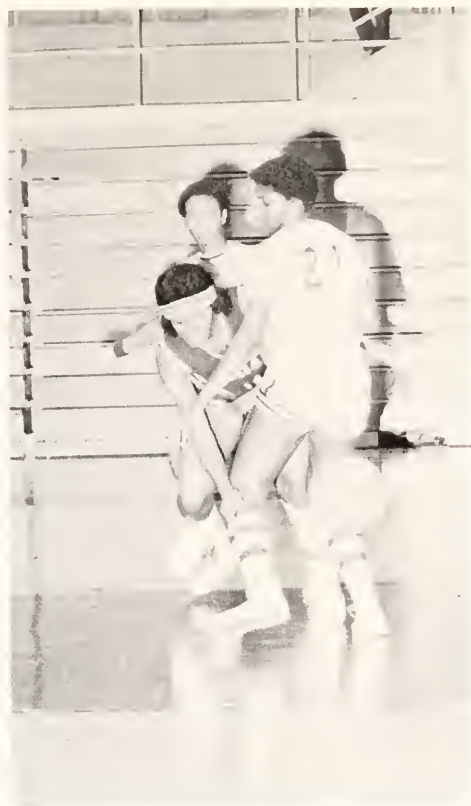

LADY BULLDOGS

Coach Huell gives instructions to his team during a time-out.

Jeanette wonders what to do about the loose ball.

Lanita Stamps goes up for a jump shot as the others await in defense.

Is Bridget releasing a shot or has she lost the ball?

BOY'S BASKETBALL

Tyrone Kidd introduces a new style of play—an extended version of the finger roll.

Charles Bell loops an overhead forward pass down court to Johnny Strong.

Tyrone Kidd dribbles the ball as he plots his strategy.

Coach Amos gives the boys the plan of play during a time-out.

Everybody anticipates the outcome of this shot. Wow! It's looking good!

This shot is going to be good. I got that happy feeling in my bones.

TENNIS

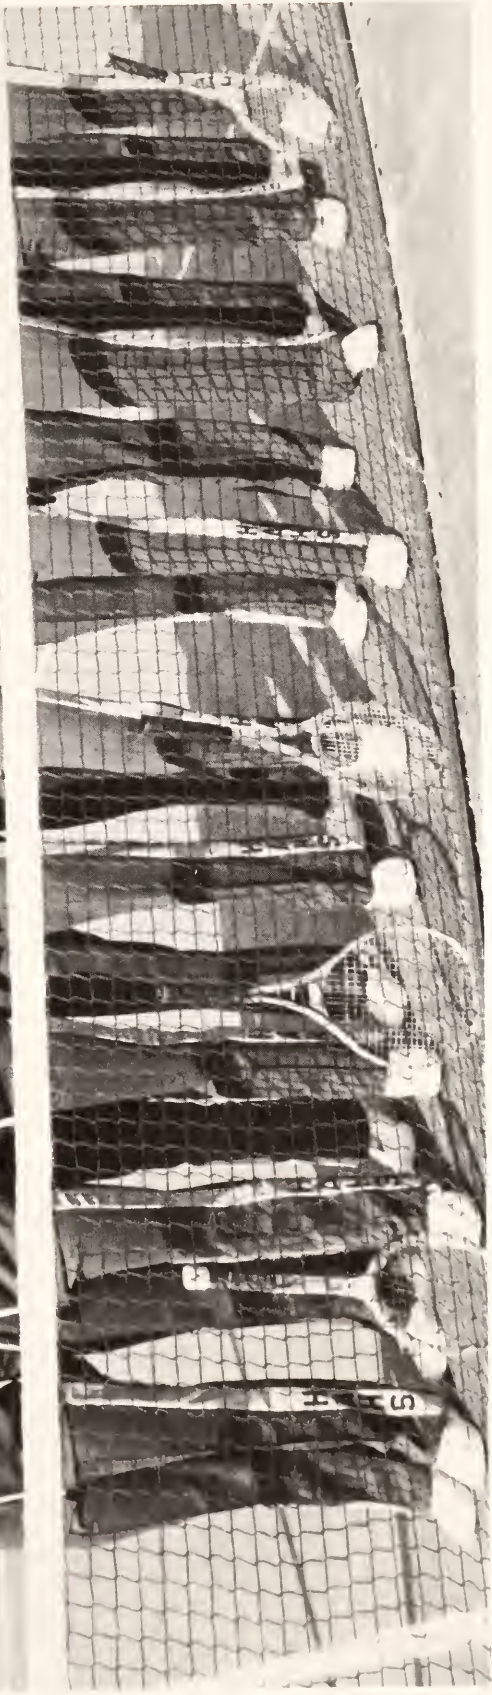

Coach Strong explains the techniques of the game of tennis. Tyrone really seems to find something very funny.

Chandra demonstrates the proper way to hit the ball.

Tyrone has to display his own style of play.

Sophomores had a grand time at the parade.

Lunch time is that special time of the day when the sophomores gather with friends to discuss those events of the day.

CLIMAX

This was a year to remember. Our main hall received a face-lift which added new life to it. The principal hired a new secretary. Tyrone Allen and Romunda Battle were crowned Mr. and Miss Hinds '83-'84. Imelda Watson served as student body president, while Lisa Gilmore served as vice-president. Diane Wilson was elected miss JROTC. The JROTC and AIASA again sponsored drives for donations for numerous needy families. Mr. J. Louis Stokes resumed his position as Ass't. Superintendent of Hinds AHS. Mrs. Catherine Knight returned to the classroom as the mother of two identical twin daughters. The football team finished the season with championship status. Fund-raising projects were undertaken by numerous clubs to obtain monies to fund their proposed projects. These and many other occurrences remind us of what we did, why we did it, how we did it and what fun we had doing it.

Darryl Jenkins was chosen state parliamentarian for the honor society.

Andrew Carter tantalizes the audience with his voice.

Etta, Tammy and Jeanette entertain an audience with "Go Down, Death."

THEN THERE WERE SPEECHES,

Rep. Robert Clark speaks during Black History Month.

Mrs. Beverly Hogan speaks for the Honor Society.

Mr. Fisher introduces Rep. Robert Clark to the Hinds AHS Family.

INSTALLATIONS

Tammy Harris gives the oath to the honor society inductees.

Senior class president Reginald Marshall swears in the student council reps.

PERFORMANCES

The Jackson State Singers perform at Hinds AHS for a Black History Month Assembly Program. The audience is captivated.

The Alcorn State Marching Band highlights the Homecoming Parade in downtown Utica—Looking Good, Gang!

Tougaloo and Jackson State combine for an original rendition of "Holy, Holy, Holy"—quite moving.

Mrs. Helen Jenkins recites "Mother to Son" with great emotion.

Heads turn and cheers ring out as these girls "do their thing" right in the heart of Utica.

ACCOMPLISHMENTS

The FFA Chapter Team did exceptionally well in many competitive events. The members include D. Jenkins, L. Gilmore, C. Gilmore, J. Wilcher, C. Gilmer, J. Nelson, and F. Hampton.

The JROTC cadets collect canned goods which they donate to needy families in and around the Utica area.

Pauline Lofton is determined to show that girls are just as good as boys in drafting—"If they can do it, I can do it, too!"

Tyrone and Romunda take the royal ride in the Homecoming Parade.

Lisa Gilmore speaks as vice-president of the student council.

AND NUTRITION.

A good lunch is just the "pick-me-up" that is needed in the middle of the day. Tyrone looks as if he is really ready to be nourished.

Mrs. Rogers makes sure that each student hands in his lunch ticket daily—No ticket, no food!

Yum, yum, yum! Mrs. Frazier checks a dish to make sure that it is cooked to perfection before it is served.

Whew! We finally get a little break. Thank goodness!

YEARBOOK STAFF

The Yearbook Staff works diligently to see that all aspects of school life are captured in this issue of the HINDSON-
IAN. It is the ultimate attempt of the staff to provide you with some remnants of the happenings of the '83-'84 school term. Those persons responsible for this conglomeration of memories are T. Harris, I. Watson, R. Battle, I. Green, K.
Lindsey, G. Newton, R. Marshall, V. Davis, and I. Marshall.

Editor R. Marshall and Advisor W. Wilcher consult on a possible lay-out for the sports section.

I. Watson, Mrs. W. Wilcher, Mrs. B. Stokes, G. Newton, Mrs. C. Odems and R. Marshall sort out pictures and prepare type sheets so that the final deadline can be met.

EDITOR'S MESSAGE

"Whatever is worth doing at all, is worth doing well." With that conviction in mind, I, along with my staff, set out to produce what we think is an affectionate object of our most cherished and illustrious moments of this academic term: The 1984 HINDSONIAN. I must admit that it has been my most distinct pleasure to render my services as the Editor-in-Chief of this highly held publication for a consecutive school term. It was our foremost effort to capture moments that would appeal to those of the faculty as well as the student body. This journal is actually a collection of illustrations of the major moments and events which took place during this school year. We felt it our duty to convert them to paper for your enjoyment.

The realization of exactly how much time and work is put into such a project is usually not recognized by the recipients of it. We wish to relate the fact that it is in order that your appreciation may be heightened. We feel that our dedication is quite evident by our accomplishments.

On behalf of the staff and me, I extend most appreciative thanks to Mr. Robert Anderson, our consistent photographer, who made a great percentage of our work possible. In addition, a special thanks to Mrs. Willie Wilcher, our yearbook advisor, along with my most competent staff and others who contributed valuable service. I, personally, would like to thank those who made it possible for me to serve in the capacity of editor. It was an enjoyable experience.

Reginald L. Marshall
