THE HINDSONIAN

1986

Hinds County Agricultural High School
Utica, Mississippi 39175
Volume X

*IN PURSUIT
OF OUR DREAMS*

Dreams bring about goals, ambitions, quest of knowledge, and excellence. As the school year began, so did the pursuit of our dreams; the dreams of being academically, socially, and athletically successful.

This year's HINDSONIAN will reflect the many activities that will show our striving to fulfill our dreams. These activities include the quest for excellence which can be seen in the classroom scenes. The quest for recognition is exhibited by participation in clubs and organizations. The quest to be competitive may be demonstrated in the athletic programs and club competitions. The quest to relate socially to our classmates, teachers, and administrators is exhibited through the social activities such as the coronation ball, numerous parades, and dances.

The pursuit of our dreams can be summarized in the poem "Dreams"

Dreams

Hold fast to dreams
For if dreams die
Life is a broken-winged bird
That cannot fly

Hold fast to dreams
For when dreams go
Life is a barren field
Frozen with snow

ANNUAL STAFF

EDITOR'S MESSAGE

This year's HINDSONIAN is something special. The staff has done an excellent job in reflecting what a school year at Hinds is really about. It is certain that one could never forget this school term. Because it was so special, the year book staff went out of the way to congregate an affectionate memorial for you. Because of this I cannot accept any of the credit for this year's annual but give all credit to my staff and our advisor, Mrs. Stokes.

Although the yearbook is supposed to be a reflection of happiness, we cannot forget those sad times. Therefore, my staff and I dedicate this annual to Cedric Singleton.
