HINDS COUNTY AGRICULTURAL
H.S.

UTICA, MISSISSIPPI 39175

VOLUME XI

MAROON AND GOLD: The Colors of SUCCESS

The Hinds County Agricultural High School yearbook staff has taken great pride in selecting a theme for this year's book. This picturesque array of occurrences on our campus exemplifies the happy times, the sad times, the enchanting times, and the glorious times, as well as the busy times, the leisure times, and the "ah, I-did-it times." Therefore, we have chosen a theme to reflect the fact that the good times outweigh the bad times at Hinds County A.H.S. This fact is demonstrated by the success of this 1986-'87 school term. As a result, those of us who proudly wear the maroon and gold and live in retrospect of '86-'87 at Hinds A.H.S. wholeheartedly concur with the theme — "Maroon and Gold: The Color of Success." Truly this has been a successful year at Hinds. As you browse through the pages of this book, may each one remind you of successful achievements in academics, in sports, in social life, and most of all, in quality education.
