MEMORIES:

Where we are is now. What we have will last forever. How? Through our pictorial capture of our days here at Hinds A.H.S. As we ventured through this school term, many occurrences confronted us. Some of them afforded us pride; some of them depicted embarrassment. Some demonstrated everything from joy to sorrow, from accomplishment to defeat, or from enlightenment to humiliation. Even though some of these incidents may be better forgotten, we must preserve them to show what was "new" during the '88-89 school session at Hinds A.H.S.

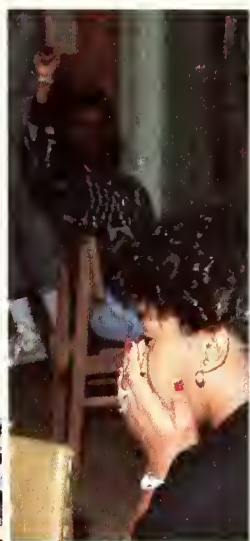

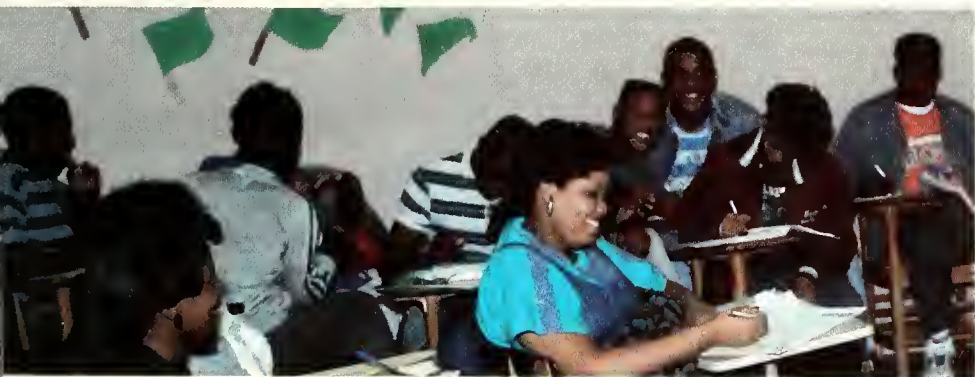

As the years progress, we want you, as readers to be able to instantly relive this year reminiscently by picking up a HINDSONIAN and thumbing through the pages, taking you back to the good "ole" days and rekindling that time in your mind as if you are still in that situation.

Let it be that you will be able to laugh at the good times as well as the bad. Memories made during the sophomore, junior, and senior years at Hinds A.H.S. should LAST FOREVER.

It is with these thoughts in mind that we selected our theme. We know where we are, and we want to capture this time indefinitely through picturesque means. Thus, we arrived at the Hindsonian theme — "Memories: Now and Forever."

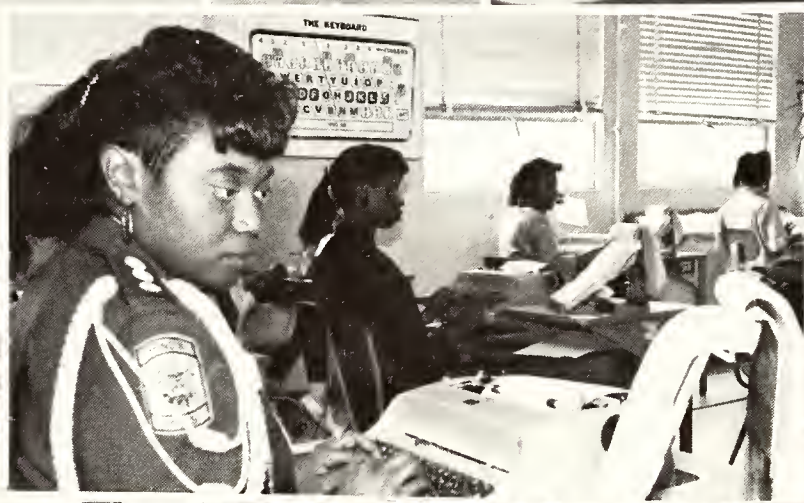

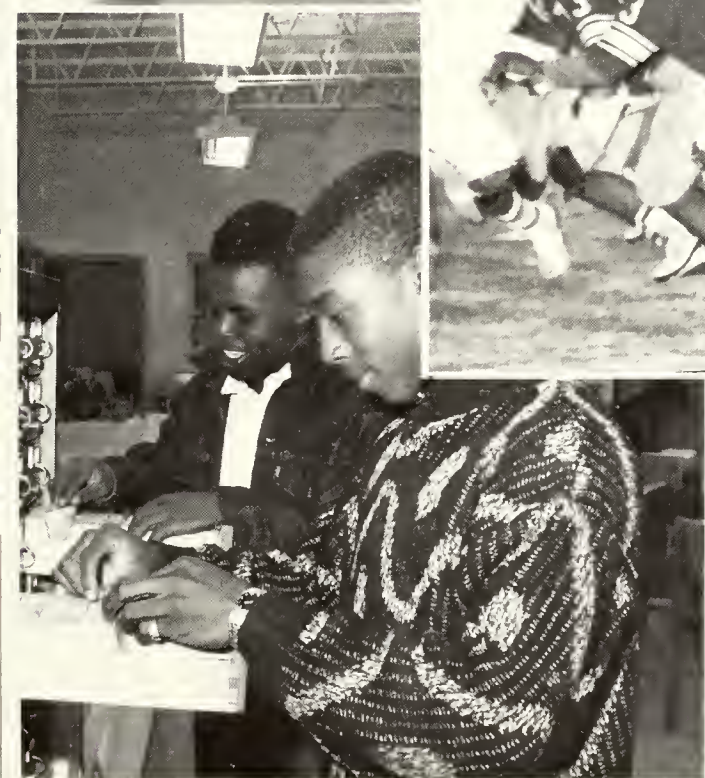

Now and Forever

THE BEST OF HINDS A.H.S.

Ahhh! the fall of '88 at Hinds AHS — What a time to remember! It was a time of enthusiasm and anticipation — Who will be what? Who will try out for what? This pictorial account, hopefully, leads you back to the pleasantries of those days — days never to be erased from our memories.

YESTERDAY'S MEMORIES

"He ain't too proud to beg."

This is my shot!

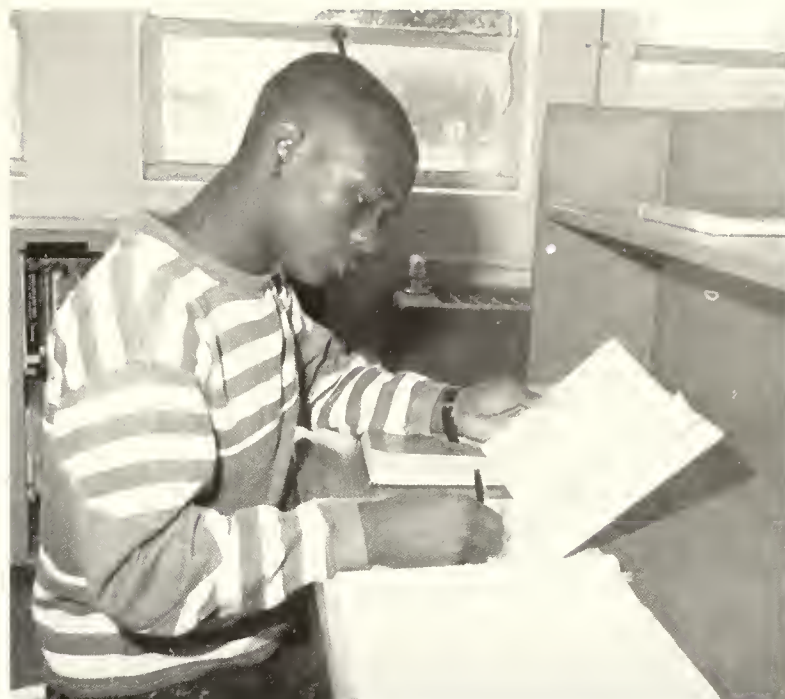

Laketia uses the library wisely.

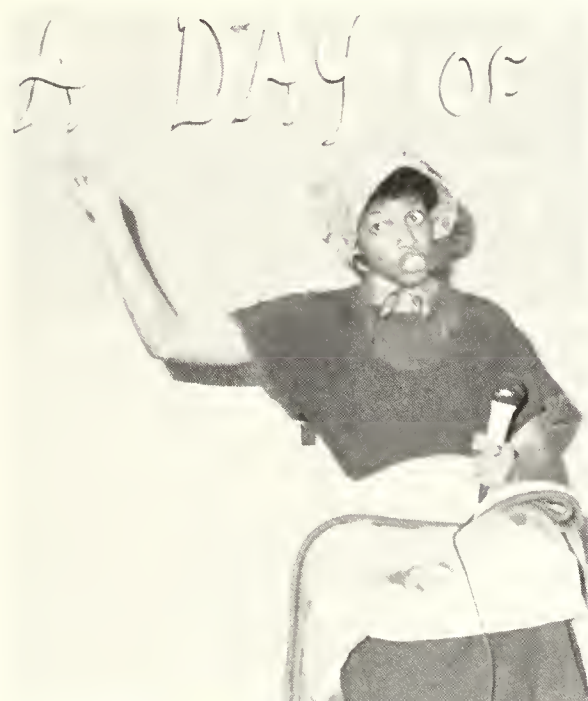

I love you, HINDS!

Do, Re, Mi, Fa, So, La, Ti, Do!

Patrick prepares his history report.

When Kedra speaks, everyone listens.

Smile! You're on candid camera.

HOMECOMING '88

As always the Bulldogs' homecoming was overwhelmingly beautiful. The many festivities of the week included "50's and 60's Day," "Tacky Day," "Mix-Match Day" (Guys dressed like girls and girls dressed like guys), and to top the week off, we had a "Maroon and Gold Day."

The Mighty "Dawgs" were host to the Madison-Ridgeland Braves, and the "real" team came out on top. Yes, the Bulldogs won the game by a score of 28-14. At half time the crowd was enchanted by Mr. and Miss Hinds, George Daniel and JoAnn Craft.
