In The Spotlight

"Fortune favors the bold."

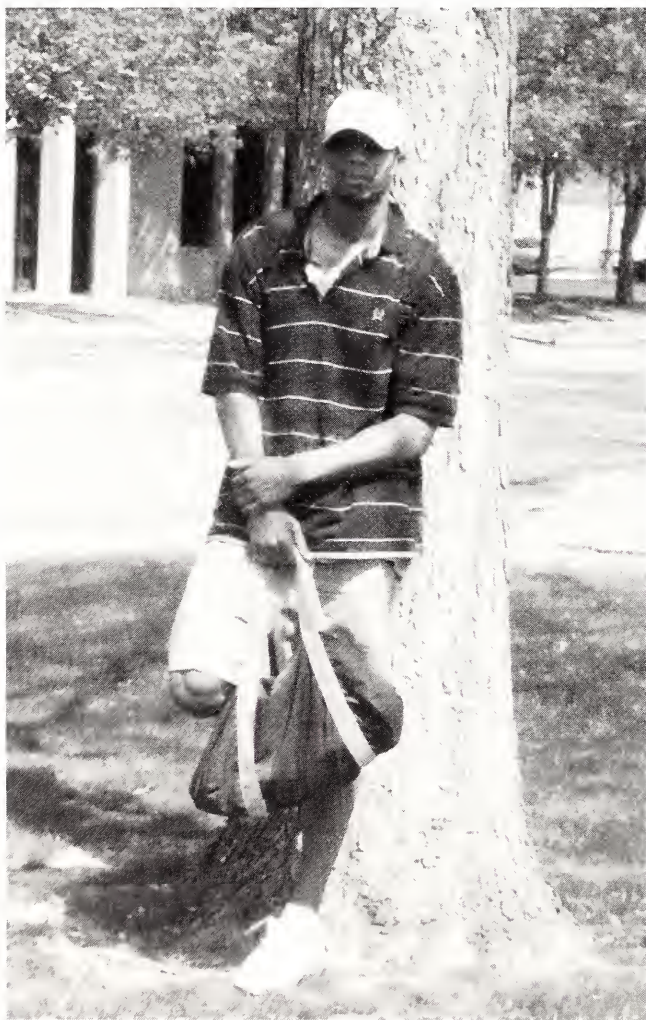

Detrick Wilson

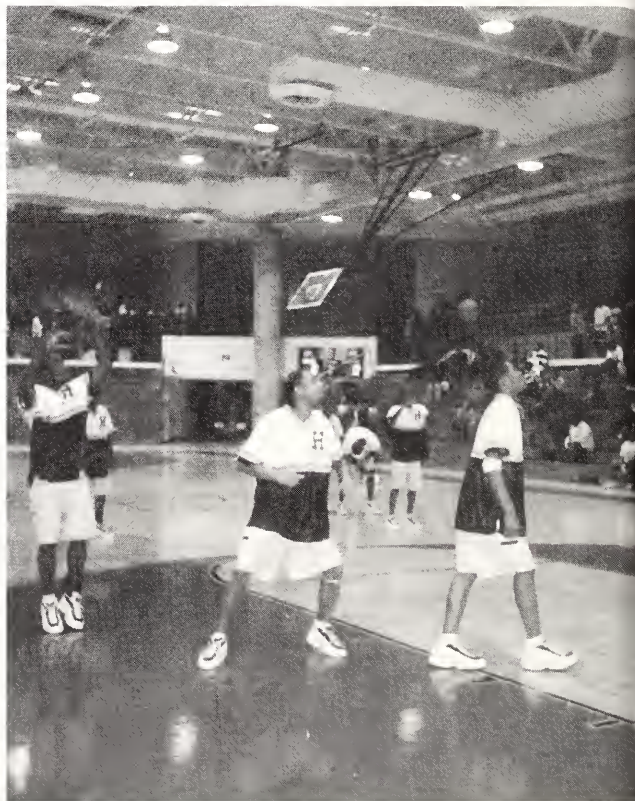

Detrick, a native of Edwards, Mississippi, is the son of Ms. Dora Brown and Mr. Nate Johnson. His hobbies are playing basketball, running track, writing poetry, and listening to the Lord's word. He is a member of the basketball team, the Poetry Club and Reality 101.

Mr. Hinds strikes a pose with Deidra Wilcher.

Detrick chills before a track meet.

“Boys Will Be Boys”

“Girls Will Be Girls”

In Memory of Roosevelt "Row Row" Anderson
May 8, 1983-April 1, 2001

To Brother Row Row

We can't believe that you're gone.
You were an 01 brother, as solid as a stone.
We loved you dearly,
Even sometimes we didn't show it.
You were so nice, so loving and so kind.
People hated on you daily, but you paid them no mind.
You did some wrong things, but nobody's perfect.
You did some crazy stuff, but for the fun, it was worth it.
Everybody's crying now, nothing will ever be the same.
Everybody's pointing fingers, but nobody's really to blame.
Even though we loved you, God loves you best.
He thought you needed to slow your roll,
So he called you home to rest.
Though it hurts, because you were a friend,
We'll mourn you 'till we join you,
And our love for you will never end.
Even though you're gone, the memories will remain.
You'll forever be in our hearts and on our minds,
And that will never ever change.

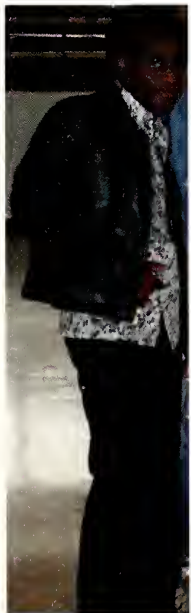

Your 01 Sister,
Deidra Wilcher

We're Gone

During summer, fall, winter, and spring,
We came together; we shared everything.

Our studies, efforts and determinations completed,
In our minds, we have finally succeeded.

We must move on as we our dreams fulfill.
Putting high school behind us — What a thrill.!

We're on our way to surmounting higher slopes,
Setting our goals and keeping up our hopes.

We've discovered the key that unlocks our future's door.
And we're moving onward to extend our knowledge more and more.

We've taken the challenges and grasped the opportunity
Posed by Hinds AHS which proved there is strength in unity.

To our friends, associates, and teachers at Hinds AHS 'til the end,
We offer love, peace, happiness, help, thanks, and support again and again.

We, the class of "01" vow to "Keep it real" and stay strong,
Enough said; enough done — Good-bye, so long, we're gone!
