History

Dr. William H.
Holtzclaw, Sr.

1903- Dr. William Holtzclaw founded the Utica Normal and Industrial Institute for the training of colored young men and women in the town of Utica, MS.

1910- the school was moved to its present site on 2000 acres of land about five miles south of Utica.

1915-Dr. Holtzclaw wrote and published The Black Man's Burden, making him one of the first Negroes to publish a book in MS.

1943-Dr. Holtzclaw died in 1943 and he along with family members are buried in the Holtzclaw Memorial Cemetery next to the current football stadium. After the death, William Holtzclaw, Jr. succeeded him as principal.

1946-Holtzclaw Jr. and his mother May Ella agreed to donate the school and property to Hinds County. The Board of Trustees assumed control and changed the name to Hinds County Agricultural High School, Colored.

1947-J.W. Grantham became Superintendent of the school.

1951-Mr. John Dewey Boyd became superintendent. During his 1954 The Board of Trustees acted to form a Junior College separate from the high school. It was named Utica Institute Junior College. Later the name colored was dropped from the high school name and it became Hinds County Agricultural High School. 1957-J. D. Boyd became president of Alcorn College. Mr. Rudolph Waters the dean of instruction served the institute as interim superintendent until Walter Washington was selected as superintendent. Hinds AHS was accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools.

1958- Walter Washington's first year as superintendent, the Board changed the school's name from Utica Institute Junior College to Utica Junior College. Washington's title was changed to president of the junior college and superintendent of Hinds County AHS.

1969-Walter Washington became the first Black to receive his doctorate degree from a predominantly white institution in the state, the University of Southern Miss. His dissertation was titled "Utica Junior College, 1903-1957: A Half Century of Education for Negroes". Dr. Washington left Utica Junior College in 1969 to become President of Alcorn College (now Alcorn State University).

Stepping 108 Years into Distinction as Others Follow

1969-Dr. Walter Washington became the first Black to receive his doctorate degree from a predominantly white institution in the state, the University of Southern Miss. His dissertation was titled "Utica Junior College, 1903-1957: A Half Century of Education for Negroes". Dr. Washington left Utica Junior College in 1969 to become President of Alcorn College (now Alcorn State University).

1969-Mr. J. Louis Stokes became President of Utica Junior College. He served as Business Manager for 11 years during the Washington Administration.

1971-Mr. Stokes took a leave of absence for graduate study and Mr. Arthur H. Kinnard was made Acting President from 1970-73.

1972- Mr. Kinnard served as Acting President. Utica Junior College was accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools.

1977-The founder's son Fulton Holtzclaw wrote a book about his father titled, "William H. Holtzclaw: Scholar in Ebony".

1981-From 1981-1982, Mr. Stokes returned to graduate school and Dr. George E. Barnes Academic Dean served as Acting President.

1982-Due to a Federal Court Order (Ayers vs. Winston Federal Desegregation Suit) Hinds Junior College and Utica Junior College merged. Dr. Clyde Muse became President of the Hinds Community College District which included all locations in Hinds Junior College and the former Utica Junior College.

From 1982-1987, Mr. Stokes served the Utica Campus as Vice-President until he retired in 1987.

1987-Dr. George E. Barnes, after Mr. Stokes retired in 1987, became Vice-President of the Hinds Community College Utica Campus. In 1987, the Mississippi Legislature changed the name "Junior College" to "Community College" and the new name became Hinds Community College.

2003-On March 19, 2003, the Utica Campus celebrated its 100th Anniversary. Dr. Roderick Paige, former Utica Jr. College and Hinds AHS coach and instructor and at the time U. S. Secretary of Education delivered the Founder's Day keynote address. The theme for the year long centennial celebration was "Embracing the Legacy, Upholding the Promise".

Follow Me

Many may wonder whether it is easier to follow than it is to lead. Perhaps both positions hold equal value. In order to be a leader, the ability to follow is essential; in order to follow, skills of a leader are innate. As we sashayed up and down the corridors of historical trailblazers seeking noble notables akin to the attributes this campus personifies, there belied mirrored images of ourselves. Thus, the eruption of our yearbook theme "Follow Me" crystallized. The foundation of this campus was formed on the masterful leadership of one man; the cornerstone of this campus stands on the tenacious following of one dream, and the glistening distinction of this one hundred eight-year old campus proudly whispers in a shout to wonderers, dreamers, and precocious spectators, "Follow Me".

And the electorates are all here. The microcosm of all ideas, inventions, and discoveries can be found in the astuteness of individuals, past or present, who have walked the dedicated grounds of this one hundred eight-year old institution. Ultimately, the only choice others can make is to follow.

Where is everyone headed? What's going on? Can we come? Is there room for others? Come, let us follow. The places are varied, the events are vast, and the times are various. By all means, you are welcome to come. From the beginning of a new school year and the introspection of newcomers to the end of that school era and the exuberancy of its graduates is a life transformation, and it is filled with eventful memories. The events are all celebratory; therefore, each one is just one big dance following another. So, let's waltz from the glitz and glamour of the Coronation Ball into the "dougie" of the grand march of graduation, and each year brings its own followers.

The Coronation Ball featured a gymnasium filled with glitz and glamour. The various organizations were represented by a king and queen who paid homage to the guest of honor Mr. and Miss Utica Campus, Malcolm Harper and Jewel Dee. The ceremony was held at 8PM in the J.D. Boyd Gymnasium. The attire for the ceremony was black tuxedos with white and maroon cummerbund and tie and black shoes for the men. The ladies wore flowing form fitting maroon gowns with white pearl earrings and necklaces and black shoes.

The Teacher Education Preparation Program held its 14th Annual Teacher Education Conference for Future Teachers on Friday, November 19. Dr. Edelia Carthan of Carthan Enterprises in Jackson delivered the opening address. Her message focused on the conference theme, "Mission: TEACH!"

The goals of the conference were to stimulate interest in the art of teaching and to address the increasing teacher shortage in Mississippi.

One of the featured attractions was a portable planetarium spearheaded by representatives from NASA Stennis Space Center. The planetarium is designed to stimulate interest for future teachers in the areas of science, technology, engineering, and mathematics.

Other presenters included Jacqueline Larry from MAE who discussed the benefits of joining the education club and Frank Yates and Kelvin Gilbert who conducted a presentation on "The Search for Mr. Educator."

Tamarceo Shaw ASG president

Brittany Johnson

Dr. Sophia Marshall

The conference was sponsored by the Teacher Education Preparation Program under the leadership of Dr. Sophia Marshall and funded by Title III under the leadership of Dr. Shirley Hopkins Davis.

Sports Hall of Fame

Forging ahead with a dream of establishing a monument to recognize the athletic achievements and alumni service of the many Hinds AHS and Utica Junior College graduates, the Sports Hall of Fame Committee selected thirteen honorees to be inducted into the 2010 Sports Hall of Fame. These honorees were celebrated on Saturday March 27, 2010, at 7:00 p.m. in the J.D. Boyd Gynasium. They represented the sports teams of football, basketball, baseball, track, and tennis. These candidates were chosen from among many. This distinguished group has made great accomplishments as a player or coach, and their service continues throughout their communities.

Religious Emphasis Week

"In Everything Give Thanks"

The Utica Campus celebrated Religious Emphasis Week during the month of November. Evangelist Kimberly Fisher delivered the keynote address. Her message encouraged listeners to always be thankful and to give God praise. The annual Thanksgiving Dinner, which was held November 14, began the week-long celebration. (Above) Ashley Wilson performs one of her signature dances during the Religious Emphasis Week celebration. (Right) The audience gets involved in praise.

Substance Abuse Week

"Not Here"

During the month of October, Student Support Services recognized Substance Abuse Week with a variety of activities. Among the activities were substance abuse discussions on prevention, intervention, and recovery, and a health walk. Student Support Services also sponsored a Mental Illness Seminar in conjunction with Mental Health Awareness Week during the month of October. Guest speaker, Mrs. Lillie Young from The Rape Crisis Center of Catholic Charities, Inc. in Jackson, addressed several forms of the mental illness disease. Among those were depression, suicide, bipolar, and schizophrenia.

Utica Campus Vice President Dr. George Barnes delivers
keynote address.

During the first general assembly, the employees are introduced to the student body and the student government leaders are officially installed. Also, during that time, Utica Campus Vice President, Dr. George Barnes, delivers his first state of the college address. In his message, Dr. Barnes encourages students to take advantage of the many educational opportunities the Utica Campus has to offer. Further, he cautions the students not to get caught-up in the idea of independence and begin making irresponsible decisions. Dr. Eugene Gaston, academic dean, plans and organizes the program.

Graduation 2010

On Sunday, May 16, the 2010 graduating classes of the Utica Campus and Hinds AHS celebrated the end of one journey and relished the beginning of another during the school's 107th graduation exercise. Dr. Reginald Nichols, president of Piney Woods School, delivered the commencement address.

Also joining in the ceremony was the 1960 graduation class of Hinds AHS. It was fifty years of celebratory bliss for the forty-two participants.

The graduates gather for one last time as a unit. They discuss plans for the future and look forward to making their mark on society. Some have chosen to continue their education at colleges and universities far and near while others have chosen to join the workforce. Either decision is wise and well thought out. Thus, each graduate is destined to make a difference. The foundation set 107 years ago by the great founder, Dr. William H. Holtzclaw, is a road map for each one to follow.

"Reaching Beyond Your Expectations"

Dr. Nichols congratulated the graduates on their accomplishments and encouraged them to continue their success and to become active in community service and development along the way.

Dr. King's Birthday Celebration

The Utica Campus celebrated the life and legacy of Nobel Peace Prize winner, Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., on January 13, 2011. The speaker was Dr. Glenell Marie Lee- Pruitt of Mississippi Valley State University. The theme of the program was "Remember! Celebrate! Act! A Day On, Not A Day Off!"

Dr. King is known for his non-violence and peace-keeping efforts which led to the 1963 March on Washington, where he delivered his "I Have A Dream" Speech.

Dr. King was born January 15, 1929, and he was assassinated April 4, 1968. This year celebrated his 82th birthday.

A Man's Deeds Worth Following

There are those who are followers and those who are leaders. Dr. King was born to lead. The world is a better place because of the life Dr. King demonstrated. He walked humbly, talked righteously, and died tragically, yet loving those who hated without a cause. As we journey to follow Dr. King's unabridged life, we challenge others to follow us as we, too, work to fingerprint a better tomorrow.

Follow the leader. In any successful group, a good leader is paramount. The common thread that weaves each organization together is its goals and objectives which are to serve and be of service to others. Somewhere within that process, each group designs its own vehicle and tools which identifies, clarifies, and qualifies each one's uniqueness. As stated in the wisest book ever penned, "the greatest among us is the servant." That is the ultimate quest of the clubs and organizations located on the Utica Campus.

Beginning English stresses basic communication skills in writing sentences and paragraphs with a review of mechanics, sentence patterns, and correct usage. Beginning with the parts of speech, it covers basic sentence patterns, pronouns, troublesome verbs, subject-verb agreement, spelling, diction, punctuation, and mechanics- all the aspects of traditional grammar that the beginning English student may encounter in later courses.

Beginning English

Ms. Betsy Martin allows students the opportunity to enhance their reading skills, beginning with reading simple information and developing a broader vocabulary. Ms. Martin challenges students to a higher level of thinking, later, a higher level of reading and writing

Sociology

This comprehensive course provides an up-to-date presentation of the essentials of sociological study. Sociology is the study of human social relations and institutions. Students will learn a wide range of classical and contemporary perspectives which will encourage links between theories and current research. With the addition of numerous net links, thoughtful exercises and examples, and review quizzes--this course will help students develop a sociological imagination. This is an ideal environment in which to examine ourselves, study our own society, as well as study our neighbors.

Topics covered will examine the sociological perspectives, sociological research, cultural debates, the process of socialization, groups and organizations, crime and deviance, stratification, inequality and discrimination that effects age and gender, race and ethnicity, issues involving the economy, different forms of government, marriage, religion, health and environment safety, urbanization, and social movements. This course is an excellent resource for any age student pursuing aspects of this study or the non-academic hobbyists and life-long learners.

Math & Science

Above: Dr. Mae Jackson works with students one-on-one as well as in classroom groups to help them grasp the concepts of basic mathematics, college algebra, trigonometry, and calculus.

Students pay close attention as problems are worked out and projected onto the screen.

Below: Mr. Rajeev Khatkhate demonstrates the steps to finding the answer in a fraction problem.

Math is radical!

Above: Students jot down notes on their math work so that they can use them later for studying and refer back to them when they are completing their homework.

Left: Students assist each other in group work and practice exercises to figure out complex math problems. Students also work independently and compare problems with fellow classmates. Maybe it is true that two heads are better than one.

Below: Students enjoy doing online math course work. They become more intrigued after they begin and start to get every problem correct.

Western Civilization

Auto Body and

Collision Repair Technology is an instruction program designed to prepare students for entry-level jobs into the collision repair and refinishing trade.

Upon completion of this program, students should be prepared for entry positions as body, frame, and refinish technicians.

Mr. Carlton brown, instructor, leads by example. The days in his class are long, steady, and intense. They are also packed with experiences and knowledge of auto body repair which make the day all worth while.

Students are provided theory and practical repair and refinish work. This begins with basic applications and progresses to heavy collision repairs which require major body and frame alignment and panel replacement.

Collision Repair

Barbering

Barbering instruction qualifies students for the State Board Certification Examination. The Barbering Program requires 1500 clock hours before going to the State Board.

Upon completion of the program, students are awarded a career certificate.

Mrs. Jacqueline Sullivan, instructor, was appointed by former governor Kirk Fordice in 1997 to serve on the MS Board of Barbering Examiners making her the first African-American to serve in that capacity. Then, Sullivan was appointed again by former governor Ronnie Musgrove and retained that position as board president until 2007.

The Barbering Program prepares individuals to cut, shampoo, and style the hair. Students also learn about skin and scalp disease, and proper equipment sterilization. The curriculum also includes the study of sales, business management, law, and customer relationships. To be admitted into the program, a person must have a high school diploma or GED equivalent, and/or must have demonstrated "Ability to Benefit" based on making a set minimum score on the ACT Compass Test which includes reading, pre-algebra, and writing/language.

Styling

Grooming

Cosmetology

Cosmetology is a course that provides lab practice in the basic manipulative skills involved in cosmetology practices and safety precautions associated with each. In accordance with the State Cosmetology Board Regulations, this practice is provided on mannequins or classmates; no work is assigned upon patrons paying for services until this course is completed. Practical application in the art of cosmetology includes preparation, procedure, safety rules, brushing, and selection of hair care products.

First place winner in the MS Independent Beauticians' and Barbers' Association

Automotive Technology

The Automotive Technology Program is an instructional program that prepares students to engage in the servicing and maintenance of all types of automobiles. Instruction includes the diagnosis of malfunction and repair of engines, and the fuel, electrical, cooling, brake, drive train, and suspension systems. Instruction is also provided in the adjustment and repair of transmissions and carburetors. The Automotive Technology Programs is a two-year career certificate program. Upon completion of the program, graduates are qualified to enter the world of work.

Program Requirements

Course requirements include electrical systems, brakes, manual drive transmission/transsexuals, basic engine performance, basic fuel systems, engine repair, electronic concepts, passive restraint systems, heating and air-conditioning, electronic brake systems, power train control systems, electronic climate control systems, and computerized engine controls.

Brick, Block &

Upon completion of this one-year career program, students will receive a certificate of completion. the instructor is Mr. Rodney Warfield

Electronics

Electronics Technology provides instruction necessary for a student to become a competent electronic technician. A graduate of the electronics curriculum will be eligible for entry-level employment into any of the electronic options and will be capable of correlating the activities of scientific research, engineering, and production for a wide variety of occupational fields.

Technology

A graduate of the Electronics Technology Program will possess the capability of working and communicating directly with engineers, scientists, and other technical personnel in their specialized area.

Mr. Casey Johnson is the Electronics Technology instructor.

Music Appreciation

Instructor, Dr. Bobby Cooper, reviews classical music, operas, and various genres of music from the Romantic Period, Baroque Period, Classical Period and Renaissance Period. Dr. Cooper also teaches different folk songs and fables.

Music Appreciation is a listening course designed to give the students, through aural perception, understanding and appreciation of music as a moving force in Western Culture. This course is designed to instruct students in treble and bass clef note reading, major scales, major key signatures, and fundamental rhythm. This includes an introduction to music software. Students that plan to continue as music majors at a senior college should follow this course with Music Theory I-IV. This two-hour lecture course is offered the fall and spring semesters.

Lift Every Voice and Sing

Welding & Cutting

The Welding and Cutting curriculum is designed to prepare students for entry-level employment in the field of welding and cutting. The curriculum includes Shielded Metal Arc Welding (SMAW), Gas Metal Arc Welding (GMAW), Flux Cored Arc Welding (FCAW), Pipe Welding, and Plasma Arc Cutting(PAC).

Also included is Carbon Arc Cutting, Oxyfuel Cutting, Gas Metal Arc Aluminum Welding (GMAAW), and Tungsten Arc Welding (GTAW). Above right: Mr. Freddie Edwards, instructor, assists student Corey Davis with his craft in Flux-Cored Arc Welding in the flat position. Mr. Edwards makes sure all of his students wear protective clothing and face gear to prevent burning, scaring, or serious injury.

Library Services

Whether it's locating books and periodicals or surfing the net, The William H. Holtzclaw Library is the place to find almost everything imaginable and more. The William H. Holtzclaw Library is designed to provide educational aid to students and an environment conducive for learning.

The library, named for its founder, is located in the heart of the campus and serves as the pulse of the institution. With its unlimited number of resources in the form of newspapers, books, magazines, and periodicals, students and employees are always informed.

Future Educators

The role of a teacher in society is both significant and valuable. Students are deeply affected by the teacher's devotion and commitment to their profession. The character, competence, and moral commitment shows students what dedication is all about. A dedicated teacher becomes a role model for his or her students. The students try to follow their teacher in the manners, etiquette, style of conversation, and attire displayed in the everyday classroom. This makes an ideal teacher. The importance of a teacher as an architect of our future generation demands that only the best and the most intelligent and competent members of our intelligentsia be allowed to qualify for this noble profession.

Following a turbulent season for the men's and women's basketball teams, they ended their season on the court with more lows than highs. However, off the court, both teams boast an impressive graduation record with 11 of the team's 12 sophomores slated for the May graduation line-up. In football, the team turned from several consecutive losing seasons to a 5-4 record in 2010. The men's soccer team continued their success and led the Eagles to state and regional championships. Their great run through the playoff ended in Tyler, Texas, in the Southeast District tournament. The women's soccer team led the Lady Eagles to an 11-7 record in 2010. Hinds fell just short in the playoffs losing the state title game to Jones in overtime. The men's tennis team continued it's success on the court with two of the top players in the country in Mikhail Pecherkin and Nikita Lisov. Pecherkin and Lisov both made the eight player list for the small college national championship tournament in the fall.

Baseball Team

Head Coach Sam Temple returns just seven sophomores from a team that was one game short of a junior college world series berth. A banner recruiting class has provided the talent and now the Eagles will work hard with the hopes of putting themselves in the same position in 2011.

Women's Basketball Team

Team members are from (top): Deondre Simpson, Me'ocha Burns, Carmen Smith, Jameria Jackson, Tyeshia Kidd, Raven Hubbard, and Kemeikia Bullock. (bottom): Meredith Williams, Kenosha Gram, Shanice Clayton, Kenya Wright, Crystal Brown, and Kalandra Willis. Student assistants are Quanisha Haynes, Kiauna Vaughn and Derricka Winters (not pictured).

The Lady Bulldogs won three of their first five games, but experienced a dip in the season with an eight-game losing streak. They were unable to regain momentum and finished 5-17 on the season. Guards Kenya Wright and LaShondra Dunson led the Bulldogs in points in 2011. The coaches are Mrs. Micheryl Smith and Assistant Coach Calvin Morgan.

Men's Basketball Team

Team members are (top): Joshua Collins, Jeremy Brent, Deionte Dean, Cory Young, Adam Smith, Malcolm Harper, and Howard Greer (bottom): Derek Burns, Trevis Thomas, Tim Lindsey, Cornelius Harris, Russell Williams, , Obarcus Taylor, and Erik Burks.

Head coach Ralph Moore hoped for carry-over success from last season when the Bulldogs reached the playoffs, but early struggles proved too much for the Bulldogs who finished 5-17. Twins Derek and Erik Burks both averaged double-digit points in 2011. The assistant coach is Leon Harris.

What a life? The life of a traditional college student is a life of whimsical and gleeful discoveries and memories. It is a seed of imaginations, and it begins long before that first footstep onto college grounds. It actually begins at the inception of that college idea. In the mind, majors are declared, in the heart, careers are formed, and in the spirit, fun, folly, and friendships are framed. Oh, what a life! Then we past that imagination into reality and find ourselves yet again drenched in homework, saturated in assignments, and mauled by classes. Somehow, we manage to meander our way to the highlights of all of the games and college activities; we twist our schedules to fit into the shadows of the night lights of the surrounding areas; and from the intoxicated and oftentimes vanity of it all, we wind our way back into the dawning of daylight. Yet, to the daunting or dismay of others, I invite you to follow me. That is the true meaning of college, and it is called student life.

Memories that will last a lifetime

Health and Wellness

Health and Wellness is an essential part to healthy living and a student's life while on and off campus. If you eat breakfast like a king, lunch like a prince, and dinner like a beggar, having a balanced diet will not be an issue. Also, exercising can help to keep a normal body weight and fight the attack of diabetes, high blood pressure, and other health problems. Being healthy creates positivity inside and out.

Student life: what a blast

Students visit the library, technology labs, and various study spots on campus where they are allowed to work quietly on the computer on upcoming assignments and homework. These can also be areas to hang out with friends.

Friends that we will never forget

This year went by absolutely too fast, but you can always follow us to the next one!!

Students converse frequently between class and on breaks to follow the latest news on sports, upcoming events, fashion and just to keep in touch. Now follow them as they head back to class. Hurry up guys!

2010-2011 Annual Staff

My, my, my, how time flies. I've been told that time does that as you become older. I am beginning to realize that there just might really be some truth in what my mother declares, "I'm wise, my dear, and it would do you well to listen and obey." I followed that advice and here I am ready to graduate along with many of my classmates. As yearbook editor, I have the privilege of penning my last year at this remarkable institution and expressing what it has meant to operate in the role as yearbook editor.

The yearbook staff chose as its theme "Follow Me." As profound as that statement is, it also carries a sword of ambiguity. For those of us who labored long and tenaciously, we encourage others to literally follow in the footsteps of those work ethics because there is a reward at the end; it is knowing that you have successfully completed a task. We hope this yearbook will serve as a memorabilia for others; we have attempted to capture time by pictorially freezing history, and this work of art will forever rest in the archives of this institution.

Now, from a broader perspective, our yearbook theme, "Follow Me" is figuratively implied. Become a leader in your community and work to spread your ideas abroad. Help to serve as a positive role model for others. Mentor some child or children who need someone to encourage them in this walk that we call life, and always do what is right even when the world around you is doing what is wrong. Stay with me now as I make my plea; follow me as I struggle to shed this cocoon casing of learning to become all that I can be and develop into a butterfly of wisdom that brings service to the world.

The 2011 yearbook staff has tried to capture all of the faces that have adorned this campus for the past year. However, our imperfections are forever present and we ask your understanding and assistance in making sure that next year our yearbook is flawless because you were on the staff. We hope you enjoy this issue and appreciate our efforts.

Thank you and may God bless each of you.

From popped collars to Top Siders, prep style endures. True Prep shows a new generation how it's done and what it means.

Sequins

Shiny, sparkly sequins become a major fashion trend when Zoe Kravitz and runway models are spotted wearing them on hats, dresses and tops.

Hats

Self-expression is always in fashion and the right hat makes it easy to add panache (and hide a bad hair day). All you need is a cute fedora or a jaunty newsboy cap.

Military Jacket

There's nothing olive drab about this trend. Military jackets are snappy, sleek and chic — a far cry from the oversized Army surplus look of yesteryear.

Energy Drinks

Energy drinks are the beverage of choice among sleep-deprived students, despite concerns that they contain unhealthy levels of sugar and caffeine.

Pillow Pets

Now it's a stuffed animal. And now it's a pillow. Puffy, popular PillowPets™ may be the snuggliest, softest trend of the year.

Dentists report that more and more teens are asking about teeth bleaching procedures, especially for photo-op occasions like proms or sweet sixteen parties.

Flip Flops

Parents and foot doctors hate them but the flip-flop fad is a year-round phenomenon for guys and girls alike (except during snowstorms).

Dr. Dre's Monster Beats are state-of-the-art headphones that make a strong, street-smart fashion statement. They look cool. And they sound even cooler.

Mineral Makeup

Beauty mavens agree: mineral makeup rocks. These sheer, lightweight, powdery formulas are the smart alternative to gooeey, pore-clogging foundations.

Get the look with a classic polo, distressed skinny jeans and leather belt with your favorite treads.

Silly Bandz

The bandz are banned! Some schools decide that Silly Bandz — the popular silicone rubber bracelets — are too distracting for the classroom.

The mountaineer look comes to the metropolis, as high-performance outdoor apparel makes a comfortable, cold-weather fashion statement.

Girls Outfit

Go for an edgy, urban look in these American Rag Twill Skinny Cargos — perfectly paired with a belted Cowl neck sweater!

Big Scarves

Long, flowing scarves become a year-round trend. This must-have accessory is the easiest way to add color and interest to casual outfits.

Monkey Slippers

It's a toy. It's a slipper. It's a fun fashion trend. Sock monkey slippers are popular in college dorms and at slumber parties.

Long Necklaces

Long, statement necklaces are trend-right. Gossip girls look luxe with Tiffany-style trinkets. Layered, chunky, vintage baubles create an alt-rock, art school vibe.

Over the Knee Boots

Boots go to great lengths. Over-the-knee styles are seen everywhere from runways to red carpets. Trendsetters wear them with short skirts or slim leggings.
